

Marina Martín<sup>1</sup>

*Article copies available for a fee from The Transformative Studies Institute. E-mail address: [journal@transformativestudies.org
Website: <http://www.transformativestudies.org> ©2021 by The Transformative Studies Institute. All rights reserved.]*

Quito, octubre, 2009

Cóndor de la luna

Cae la tarde en la plaza...

Torres y campanarios
visten sus contornos
de luz,
sellando con sombras
y encajes de piedra
el fluir de los siglos.

Fuentes y jardines
ceden su frescor
al paso de las horas
soñando el alborozo y el eco
de voces y trinos.
Elevan las farolas
el perfil de los árboles
extendiendo su abrazo
en el bullicio de la noche.

---

<sup>1</sup> Marina Martín, Ph.D., is professor of Hispanic Studies at the College of St. Benedict, St. John's University (MN). She teaches language, literature, film, art, and history within the fields of Hispanic and European studies. She did research in philosophy at the Consejo Superior de Investigaciones Científicas (C.S.I.C.) in Madrid, prior to obtaining her Ph.D. from the University of Virginia in 1990. Her publications in the USA, Europe, and Latin America focus on her research and teaching interests: philosophy, Hispanic literature/art/film. She was the president of ALDEEU (Spanish Professionals in America) in 2014-2015 and headed the XXXV ALDEEU International Conference in her native town, Segovia (Spain), in July 2015.